

The Sunday World To-Morrow

Will acquit itself nobly of its task of telling the American people everything that it wants to know and nothing that it does not want to know.

First in importance among the features of this issue will be a revelation of

THE REAL JAY GOULD.

Held among us, but was not very generally understood. Many of the facts even of his career have been secrets as far as the public is concerned. The World will tell some of these secrets. His character will be explained in the light of the knowledge of former business associates. For the first time the true story will be told of how he stole the Erie Railroad. The useful information as to how he did $6,000,000 of work with $75,000 will be given.

A DAY WITH DEWEY.

Mr. Chauncey M. Dewey, a small millionaire but very useful citizen, will be depicted at the daily task, the trivial round. How he works, thinks, talks, smiles, etcetera.

IN THE SIBERIAN LEAD MINES.

The recently published writings and pictures of a Russian, who was condemned innocent, but became a nihilist. Before he had been two years in the czar's lead mines he envied the fate of his fellow-prisoners, who while chained up were gnawed to death by wolves. At the end of two years he died raving mad.

A TALE BY FLORENCE MARRIAT.

"Butterfly" is a tale by Florence Marriat, daughter of the sea captain of the same name. It is a tragedy of a humble and touching character. It will be published complete in THE SUNDAY WORLD.

ARE WE BETTER THAN OUR FATHERS?

A well-known writer will endeavor to prove that we are much better than our ancestors. In fact, he says one generation is always better than the preceding, in spite of what Shakespeare and others say. Were those of our ancestors commonly called heretic for the most part drunkards and cowards, not to be compared with modern heroes? Every person will have his own answer to this question. The writer in THE SUNDAY WORLD is down on the men of antique heroic mold and all ancestors. Even the Prince of Wales he calls a guileless infant compared to his predecessor, and the late Duke of Marlborough a virtuous citizen compared to his great ancestor.

THE CONJUGAL PROBLEM.

It is a problem which deeply concerns New Yorkers, who usually solve it by not marrying. Mr. Julius Henri Brown, known as a writer on woman, will discuss the problem in THE SUNDAY WORLD. He seems to think this is the best solution for those who cannot afford to marry. It is a widely accepted fallacy, he says, that two can live as one.

THE WOMAN'S PAGE.

Here will be found information for those who have helped men to solve the marriage question in another way from that mentioned. The latest news and opinions of various eminent persons concerning the marriage, which Mr. Worth proposes to impose on the civilized world, will be given.

AN ATTRACTIVE BACHELOR.

Mr. Eugene Higgins is a young man who has youth, beauty, houses, horses, millions, and everything but a wife to make him happy. Many are willing to complete his happiness. A description of his country-seat and of the palaces in which he lodges his horses.

MISS REHAN'S FORM.

It is more statuesque and better adapted to the artistic purpose to which it has recently been put, than that of many other attractive and well-known American women? This is a question which agitates the public mind. THE SUNDAY WORLD will assist its discussion with pictures of the claimants, persons in similar attitudes and costume.

WALKING FOR CAKES.

Photo Jim, the acknowledged master of the art of walking for cakes in this part of the world, will tell how to do it. This will please sporting readers and others with a sense of humor.

BILLIARD PLAYING.

George F. Slosson, the famous expert, will give some valuable instruction as to the proper method of holding the cue and making the shot. A lesson by which many old players might profit.

HOW TO SAIL ON SKATES.

This and many other things will be among the attractions of the sporting department of THE SUNDAY WORLD. Joe Dougherty, whom Noman carried over Niagara on a tight-rope, rescued from obituary.

The SUNDAY WORLD will provide, as usual, complete information concerning art, music, letters and the drama. Native and foreign humor will also be tenderly cared for by THE SUNDAY WORLD.

Doubled His Money.

Minister—I don't understand how the spirit of gambling can run you of your common sense. Here you have only five cents and you are going to risk it on a turkey raffle. You have five cents to win and are almost sure to lose everything.

Minister—That's a bad as all that, boss. If I have five cents to win and a turkey raffle, I will be a boss at once.
